

An Art Affair

Girls' ART Classes

Where: New Merkle Community Center 4405 Dolly Ridge Rd Cahaba Heights 35243

When: Tuesdays 3:00 - 4:00 We pick VHECH students up from carpool line at 2:45.
12 Weeks of classes Starting September 3rd through November 26th with Thanksgiving week off.

What: Girl's just want to have fun and be creative! This class provides an energetic environment to create using Paints, Pastels, Fabrics, Papers, Wood, Canvases and other Mediums. It is a unique way for your daughter(s) to express themselves creatively while learning techniques and terminology!

The class is taught by a VHECH Mom and a Samford student with over 15 combined years of experience teaching art in environments where kids feel free to develop their skills.

Each week a new skill will be learned with a new project to take home! Skills range from brush techniques, working with warm and cool colors, and experimenting on different mediums.

Class fee includes All supplies and a smock to protect clothes from paints. VHECH students need to bring a snack as there will be a short snack time before class begins.

Who: This class is for Girls grades K-5th

Cost: $50 registration fee and $50 per month (Sept, Oct, Nov.) September's tuition is due with the registration by August 30th.
